

Aims & Objectives

- Central Research Laboratory [CRL] shall cater to the needs of ongoing non-funded research by faculty members as well as the post graduate students in the respective departments.
- Guidance on research projects of undergraduate students like Short Term Studentship (STS) Programme of ICMR, Certain Short research projects of Department of Science and Technology (DST) etc.
- Guidance shall be given to focus on training and research by a team of experts from all medical specialities.
- Guidelines for prospective study design, execution and analysis, diseases management, psychometric development and validation, economic modeling etc. shall be given by members of central research laboratory monitoring committee.